

Jessica Alba Dynasty League – 2021 Season Review – Part Two

1. Introduction

So gents, we are about two-thirds of the way through the regular season so I thought I'd take the time to update you on our progress and hand out some minor awards.

2. League Leader

As you all know, your noble Commissioner is still sitting pretty on top of the league. 🏆

But the winner of the second phase of the league is Mike who has gone 5-0, with Ross and the Commish just behind at 4-1.

3. League Loser

Lee is presently at the bottom of the pile desperately seeking that overall No. 1 pick. 🤡

He's not solely bottom of the pile for the second phase of the regular season. He shares that 1-4 accolade with Chris and Dudders.

4. Top Scorer

Going hand in glove of the league lead, your noble Commissioner also continues to be our highest points scorer with 1,489.56 points. 🔥

5. Fewest Points

Although Lee is at the bottom of the league, he's come up against some relatively high scores, so it's Chris who has scored the fewest points taking over from our previous low scorer (Dudders) with 1,094.74 🤡

6. Potential Points

Since we now will be deciding the draft order based on potential points, I'll give a short lowdown on those at the bottom. Gareth would be taking the highest available pick with 1,288.56, followed by Chris at 1,402.60. Conversely, Dudders would have the lowest pick with 1,523.20 and closely followed by Lee with 1,502.56.

7. Best Defence

The best 'defence' continues to be the Commissioner who has only conceded 1,106.24. The team who has conceded the most is Dudders with 1,365.86. 🗨️ Honourable mention to Dave and Gareth who faced 1,320.92 and 1,314.56 points, respectively.

8. Least FAAB used

Neil has by far the most of his FAAB left, having spent a mere $276 in the season and auction. 🏆

Next closest is Dudders with $460 remaining.

9. Most FAAB used

In his desperation for a victory, Ross has spent all his FAAB! Honourable mentions to Lee who just had to pick up Cam Newton and has a mere $2 remaining.

10. Best Manager

Despite his low league position, it is Gareth our joint best manager in the second phase with Mike, both picking up the award twice. Chris is out ahead as our worst manager of the phase with two awards 😞😞

11. MVP Picker

Our second phase 'MVP Picker' award winner is Ross with 5 top scoring players. 🧠 Honourable mentions to Dudders with 4. Alex, Gareth and Lee have the fewest outstanding players with just two top scoring players. 😞

12. Benchwarmer

In contrast Alex, Gareth and Lee's middle of the road teams, they also have few duds and they also win our 'Benchwarmer' Award winner with just one player winning a benchwarmer spot. 🐒 This may be a reflection on how bad their benches are. In contrast, the noble Commissioner's superstar team means he's left masses of points on his bench 7 times [definitely not just a terrible, terrible selector of players]! 🧑 Honourable mention to Chris and Ross who have left some top players on their bench 5 times.

13. Big Games

Week 11 features two big matchups: first against second for pre-post-season bragging rights and the Dave vs Dudders playoff face-off.

Week 12 features two more big games. If Dudders beats Dave, Dudders plays Alex in another playoff face-off, whilst Dave's fate could be sealed in a matchup with the Commissioner.

14. Conclusion

It's been a good second phase of the season. There's been a few upsets, a couple of good trades and a clear separation of the contenders for the top picks and those chasing the playoffs and the elusive

Championship belt. We now have three teams already qualified for the playoffs (your noble Commissioner, Mike and Ross(!?)). Every team could technically still make the playoffs but one team which is most likely not joining them (Lee). There's still time to make moves to improve your fortunes or focus on the future.
