

Jessica Alba Dynasty League – 2022 Season Review – Part Two

1. Introduction

So gents, with the end of the round-robin and before we start our conference round, I thought I'd bring forward the second mid-season review. We'll take a look at where we are, hand out some minor awards and see where we may be going.

2. Round-Robin Review

LFC

Despite another loss to now second place, Mike keeps his top spot in the LFC. He's outscored his divisional rivals by over 100 points so is looking good to get that important bye. Dudder's victory in week 9 not only moved him up to second it also projects to save the LFC of the embarrassment of only having two playoff spots. It was a bad week for Dave - Smashed by Chris putting up fewer than 90 points! He needs to get back on track if the LFC are to keep that 3rd playoff spot. Dave's 81 points is as high as the basement dwellers of the LFC can only dream of – putting up the second and fourth lowest ever scores, Gareth edged out Alex, who is now happily out of the playoffs.

MFC

There's been a change of lead at the MFC, with Lee beating your noble Commissioner for the first ever time despite Mixon's heroic efforts. Lee will be hoping for another win this as it's incredibly close points-wise. There's only 25 points between the top four, with Lee having the fewest. In third is Ross thanks to a win over Neil but only by fewer than 2.5 points to Chris who dominated Dave. Neil is still sitting at the bottom with a difficult loss to Ross whom he plays again this week.

3. Conference Leaders

As above, Mike and Lee sit atop of their conferences. 🏆

But the winners of the second phase of the season are Chris, Lee and Dudders who are all 3-1.

4. Conference Losers

As you all know, Alex and Neil are presently bottom of the pile in their conferences. 🤔

Alex is bottom of the pile for the second phase of the season too with a 0-4 record. Honourable mentions to Mike and Ross who are 1-3.

5. Top Scorer

Despite his recent losses, your noble Commissioner has overtaken Ross and Mike and is the highest points scorer with 1,250.88 points. 🔥 There are 4 other teams within 25 points of this score though!

6. Fewest Points

Going hand in glove with his terrible record, Alex continues to score the fewest points with just 806.82. 🙄

7. Potential Points

Since the draft order is mainly based on potential points, I'll give a short lowdown on those at the bottom. Alex would be taking the highest available pick with 1,017.36, followed by Gareth at 1,168.30. Conversely, Chris would have the lowest pick with 1,460.98 not closely followed by Neil with 1,286.52.

8. Best Defence

The best 'defence' has switched from Dave to Chris who has only conceded 1,035.88, just ahead of Alex at 1,037.30. The team who has conceded the most remains Gareth with 1,275.40. 🏠 Honourable mentions to Mike and the Commish who are second and third, respectively.

9. Least FAAB used

Dudders has the most of his FAAB left, not having spent even $1! 💵

Next closest is Neil with $975 remaining (less said about that $25 the better)!

10. Most FAAB used

In his desperation for a victory, Chris has spent all his FAAB! Honourable mention to Lee who has less than $200 left.

11. Best Manager

Our second phase best manager is shared across Chris, Lee, Neil and Dudders. Alex is out ahead as our worst manager of the phase with three awards 🤖 🤖 🤖

12. MVP Picker

Our second phase 'MVP Picker' award winner is Chris with 5 top scoring players. 🗨️ Honourable mentions to Dudders and Lee with 4. Alex, Gareth and Ross have the fewest outstanding players with just one top scoring player. 🙄

13. Benchwarmer

Alex and Dudders seem to have few duds and win our 'Benchwarmer' Award winner with no player winning a benchwarmer spot. 🤡 This may be a reflection on how awful their benches are.

In contrast, the noble Commissioner, Mike and Ross's superstar teams means they've left masses of points on their benches 4 times [definitely not just terrible, terrible selector of players]! 🧑 Honourable mention to Chris, Gareth and Neil who have left some top players on their bench 3 times.

14. Big Games

Arguably all the fixtures this week are big games. However, I'll highlight a couple. Another battle at the top of the MFC with Lee playing your noble Commissioner again. With a victory Lee would likely secure a playoff spot and send the Commissioner into a battle for the two remaining spots in the MFC. In the LFC the battle for 2nd is on between Dave and Dudders. The winner setting the pace for guaranteeing a playoff spot.

Losses for Gareth and/or Neil will mean their playoff dreams are over once more.

15. Conference Outlook

LFC

With two disaster zones at the bottom of the LFC, it's going to come down to the matchups between the rest of the conference for the remaining spots and the order they finish. If either Gareth or Alex can beat either Dave or Dudders, that 3rd playoff spot could be in jeopardy again.

MFC

It's incredibly close in the MFC. A win for the Commissioner this week would drag Lee back into a four-horse race with only 3 spots. With only 25 points separating the teams it will be incredibly close with every game making a difference. There is still a very small chance it becomes a five-horse race but Neil would have to win every game to even have a hope of the playoffs. One loss and he's facing the race for the number 1 pick.

16. Conclusion

It's been a good second phase of the season. There's been a few upsets, a couple of good trades and a hot chase for the playoffs and the elusive Championship belt. Nobody has dominated and qualified for the playoffs. All but one team could, technically, still make the playoffs. There's still time to make moves to improve your fortunes or focus on the future.
